DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Group I, claims 17-32, drawn to a method of screening for an alteration in cellular phenotype comprising a population of retrovirally infectable cells comprising a library of retroviral vectors encoding different candidate bioactive agents.

Group II, claims 33-36, drawn to a method of screening for an alteration in cellular phenotype comprising combining a population of cells with a candidate bioactive agent.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are drawn to different methods using different components and steps that produces different results/ compounds with different effects and/or functions. For example, the method of Group I is drawn to the use of retrovirally infectable cells and library of retroviral vectors that encode candidate agents. Group II does not recite for any vector i.e., direct cellular phenotype screening from cells with bioactive agents.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, and the search required for Group I is not required for Groups I, specifically the literature journal searches, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

If Group I is elected, applicants are to elect a single species from each of subgroups A-C below, as follows:

- A. Sorting means as recited in claim 26.
- B. Bioactive agents: (as recited in claims 30-32.)
  - 1. Proteins
  - 2. Peptides
  - 3. Small organic molecules

C. Positive control as recited in claim 32 (e.g., a structure of said p21 if a fragment or mutant is elected.)

- 1. P21

2. P21 fragment
3. P21 mutant
4. P21 mutant fragment

If Group II is elected, applicants are to elect one species from A and B, above.

Each of the species covered in each of the subgenus A differs in structure and mode of action. A prior art reference anticipating one species would not render obvious the other species.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 17 and 33 are generic.

Applicants are advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicants will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicants traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicants are reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
